

WEBSITE PRIVACY POLICY LANGUAGE COVERING PAYMENT PROCESSING

Disclosure of Credit Card and Debit Card Data to Insurance Providers and Third Parties Processing Payment. If you choose to purchase an insurance policy or policies through our Site using a credit card or debit card, then your credit or debit card information will be collected and processed by (1) One or more of the Lockton companies; (2) Your insurance provider; and/or (3) Lockton's or the providers' payment processing vendors. If you choose a recurring billing option to cover payment of future premiums, then your credit card or debit card information will be stored until you cancel recurring billing. Although Lockton takes steps to confirm that its third party credit and debit card processing vendors have adequate privacy protections in place and requires such processing vendors to comply with all applicable data privacy laws and regulations, Lockton cannot guarantee the data privacy practices of any third party. By submitting your credit card or debit card information via this Site, you consent to the collection, processing and usage of credit card or debit card information by Lockton, your insurance provider, and by any third-party vendors assisting with credit and debit card transactions. If you do not consent to this, do not provide credit and debit card information via this Site.
